

SEC. 150.086 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this subchapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

COMBINED MOVING PERMIT. A permit to move a building on both a street and a highway.

HIGHWAY. A public thoroughfare for vehicular traffic which is a state trunk highway, county state-aid highway, or county road.

HIGHWAY MOVING PERMIT. A permit to move a building on a highway for which a fee is charged which does not include route approval, but does include regulation of activities which do not involve the use of the highway; which activities include, but are not limited to, repairs or alterations to a municipal utility required by reason of the movement.

MOVING PERMIT. A document allowing the use of a street or highway for the purpose of moving a building.

STREET RIGHT-OF-WAY. A public or private thoroughfare with a minimum right-of-way width of at least 60 feet, subject to the City Engineer's discretion, which is used or intended to be used for passage or travel by motor vehicles. Streets are further classified by the functions they perform.

STREET MOVING PERMIT. A permit to move a building on a street for which a fee is charged which does include route approval, together with use of the street and activities including, but not limited to, repairs or alterations to a municipal utility required by reason of the movement.
