Residential Rental Ordinance - Crime Free Description

The Minnesota Crime Free Multi-Housing Program is designed as a partnership between law enforcement, and rental property owners, managers and tenants to keep drugs and illegal activity out of rental property. When crime and drugs operate out of rental property, neighborhoods suffer and landlords pay a high price. That price may include the loss of valued tenants, decline in property values, property damage, civil penalties, fear, frustration, resentment and anger between neighbors, tenants and property managers.

Property Owners / Managers are encouraged to complete the MN Crime Free Multi-Housing Phase 1 class. The MN Crime Prevention Association (MCPA) keeps a list of upcoming classes being held throughout our state under their Training & Events tab on their website: <http://www.mncpa.net/what-we-do/crime-free-multi-housing>

Property Owners / Managers are required to perform criminal record checks prior to entering into a lease, written or verbal, with a tenant.

Property Owners / Managers are required to include a crime free/drug free lease addendum to all leases signed by the tenants.

Benefits to Property Owners / Managers:

- Increased property values
- Increased demand for rental units
- A stable, more satisfied tenant base
- Lower maintenance and repair costs
- More appreciative neighbors, tenants, and community
- Improved personal safety for tenants, landlords, and managers
- Peace of mind that comes from spending more time on routine management and less on crisis control

Benefits to Tenants:

- A safe environment
- Fair, equal treatment of tenants
- Management involved in tenant issues and concerns

Benefits to Law Enforcement:

- Tried and true crime prevention methods
- Drop in calls for service
- Improved quality of life for the community at large
- A community oriented policing approach to crime prevention
- Statewide collaboration between cities, police, and sheriff departments
- Teaches property managers how to work with police and neighbors.
